

Dating Conversation Questions

Warm-up Task:

Which qualities are most important to you in a romantic partner? Choose three and explain your choices: physical appearance, common interests, fashion sense, kindness, intelligence, honesty, marriage potential, other.

Discussion Questions:

1. How do people meet people to date these days? Is it mainly with dating apps?
2. What is your ideal type? Be as specific as possible.
3. What activities are enjoyable to do on a first date?
4. Is it a man's responsibility to ask a woman out? If you're a woman, have you asked a man out on a first date?
5. Who should pay on a date? How about splitting the bill?
6. Is it okay to date several people at the same time?
7. Do you have any bad dating experiences you would like to share? If not, maybe you have heard about some from your friends?
8. Have you ever been on a double date or group date? How was it?
9. Do you like to talk a lot? Are you quiet when you first meet someone? Is it okay if one person does most of the talking on a date?
10. How can you tell if the other person is enjoying the date or wanting the date to end?
11. If you were on a date with someone and they kept checking their phone or watch, what would you do about it? Would you say something?
12. What is the appropriate age to start dating?
13. Is it important to date many people before getting married? Is it better to be with one person for your entire life?
14. Describe your ideal romantic date. What would you do first, next, and then last?
15. Can you predict who will make a good couple? Have you introduced people to each other in the hope they would become a couple?
16. Is it okay to date someone your friend already dated? Or are they forever off-limits?
17. Have you ever been on a blind date? How did it go?
