

Future Perfect Continuous Conversation Questions

Answer the following questions using the future perfect continuous verb tense. Try to continue your discussion naturally.

Discussion Questions:

1. It's Saturday and your house smells good. What will you have been cooking?
2. You arrange to meet a date at a restaurant, but they arrive one hour late. What will you have been thinking?
3. There is a blackout and you have no power from 5pm to 10pm. When the power comes back on, what will you have been doing?
4. Next year, you find you have gained weight. What will you have been doing?
5. Otto comes out of the cinema and he's smiling. What will he have been watching?
6. You wake up from a dream about your days in high school. What and who will you have been dreaming about?
7. Misty gets a job as a doctor. What will she have been studying before getting that job? How long will she have been studying for?
8. You complete a triathlon. What will you have been doing for the past few hours?
9. Your plane arrives in London. Will you have been sleeping on the flight?
10. Your friend gives you a birthday present in July. Will you have been expecting it?
11. Your friends come over to your house for a dinner party. How will you have been preparing for the event?
12. If you wake up at your usual time tomorrow, how long will you have been sleeping?
13. At the end of this year, how long will the leader of your country have been leading?
14. When you arrive home tonight, how long will you have been commuting?
15. At the end of this month, how long will you have been living in your current house?
16. By the time an average person retires from work, how many years will they have been working?

